Paul Casey heading home for BMW PGA Championship

England's Paul Casey admits he cannot wait to play in front of his home crowd again after confirming he will return to the BMW PGA Championship – the first of eight Rolex Series events on the European Tour in 2018.

Casey returned to winning ways on Sunday, holding off Tiger Woods to win the Valspar Championship on the PGA Tour – a victory which moved him up to 12th on the Official World Golf Ranking and boosted his chances of returning to Europe's Ryder Cup Team in France this September.

The 40 year old will be back on home soil in May when he makes his first appearance at Wentworth in five years.

Casey grew up in Surrey and regularly walked the fairways of the famous West Course as a youngster, watching legends of the game such as Seve Ballesteros and Sir Nick Faldo play in, and win, the prestigious tournament, before the three-time Ryder Cup player went on to emulate his childhood heroes by lifting the title himself in 2009.

After playing in 12 consecutive editions of the BMW PGA Championship from 2002-2013, he has not featured at Wentworth for the past four years due to a combination of injuries and family commitments in the United States. But after re-joining the European Tour at the start of 2018, the former World Number Three is now relishing the chance to return to an event which holds some special memories for him.

"It's a bit of a homecoming for me," said Casey. "Wentworth is really one of the reasons I now play golf. I used to go to watch the PGA Championship when I was a kid and watching Faldo and Seve play round that golf course was really what sparked my interest in the game."

"To have played in the PGA Championship as many times as I have, and to have won it, and then having taken a little bit of a break, means I have so many wonderful memories. I am truly, genuinely excited about making my return."

"Winning at Wentworth was really one of the finest moments of my career, I must admit. There is something about the fact that it is the home of European Tour golf, and the fact that it was in front of a home crowd, and in front of my family, made it even more special. It has a special place in my heart. I love the course and love everything about it, and I would love to win another one."

Casey joins Tommy Fleetwood in the field at Wentworth in May, having formed an impressive partnership with his compatriot in the EurAsia Cup in January.

Both players are now targeting a place in Europe's Ryder Cup Team in Paris with the BMW PGA Championship marking the start of a critical point in the qualification campaign, where points earned at European Tour events from the BMW PGA Championship until Made in Denmark multiplied by 1.5 on both the World Points List and the European Point List.

Note 2: For points earned to count within any one Official Season, a Ranked Member<sup>1</sup> (including a Ranked Honorary Life Member) must fulfil his Membership obligations* (referred to in Regulation B1(c)) within that Official Season.

* In the Official Season in which The Ryder Cup is to be played, if any Ranked Member<sup>1</sup> has not fulfilled these Membership obligations at the time when The European Ryder Cup team is selected, he must have committed to Participate in and there must remain sufficient Race to Dubai Tournaments in that Official Season for the Member to be able to do so.
