2017 Champion: SSP Chawrasia (IND)

PRIZE FUND: US$1,750,000

SSP Chawrasia

DID YOU KNOW? - Hero Indian Open

• Race to Dubai leader Shubhankar Sharma is aiming to continue his spectacular start to the 2018 season by winning his national open for the first time. The 21 year old won his first two titles at the Joburg Open and Maybank Championship in Malaysia, before a top ten finish in his first World Golf Championship event at the WGC-Mexico Championship last week, having led after two of the four rounds in Central America.

• Since the Hero Indian Open became part of the European Tour International Schedule in 2015, it has only been won by golfers from India: Anirban Lahiri (2015) and SSP Chawrasia (2016-17).

• When he tees it up at DLF Golf and Country Club in Delhi this week, Thomas Bjørn will become the first current Ryder Cup Captain to play the Hero Indian Open. He is joined in the field by 2016 Ryder Cup Captain and Major winner Darren Clarke, and former Ryder Cup players Jamie Donaldson, Stephen Gallacher, David Howell, Edoardo Molinari and Chris Wood.

• When he successfully defended his title last year, Chawrasia became only the second Indian player and the third player overall to win the tournament in consecutive years following his countryman Jyoti Randhawa (2006-07) and Kenji Hosoishi of Japan (1967-68).

• The tournament was first played in 1964, won by Australia's Peter Thomson, who went on to take the title twice more (1966 and 1976).

• If Chawrasia successfully defends his title again, he would become the first player to win the tournament in three consecutive years, and only the third to win the title three times, following Thomson and Randhawa, who won the first of his three titles in 2000. He would be the first player to win the same European Tour event on three successive occasions since Tiger Woods (WGC-Bridgestone Invitational - 2005, 2006 and 2007)

• With his win last year, Chawrasia became the first player to win their first four European Tour titles in their home country, following the 2008 EMAAR-MGF Indian Masters, 2011 Avantha Masters and 2016 Hero Indian Open.

• When Lahiri beat Chawrasia in a play-off in 2015, it was the first all-Indian European Tour play-off and the first Indian one-two in European Tour history.

• This is the second consecutive year that the Hero Indian Open has been played on the Gary Player Course at DLF Golf and Country Club. The course was opened in 2015, however the tournament was held at DLF on one previous occasion, when India's Chinnaswamy Muniyappa took the title in 2009.
