Trophée Hassan II

Royal Golf Dar Es Salam,
Rabat, Morocco

2017 CHAMPION Edoardo Molinari (ITA)

PRIZE FUND: €2,500,000

Edoardo Molinari

DID YOU KNOW?- Trophée Hassan II

- Edoardo Molinari's victory over Paul Dunne in 2017 was the third time a play-off was needed to decide the winner of the Trophée Hassan II since the event joined the European Tour's Race to Dubai in 2010. The Italian won with a par on the first extra hole, becoming the third player from continental Europe to win the event.
- The event's only three-time winner, Santiago Luna is playing on invitation. The 54 year old is competing in his 594th European Tour event.
- The Trophée Hassan II was first played in 1971 and is Morocco's longest-running sporting event, first won by 1969 U.S. Open Champion, Orville Moody. The tournament is rich in history with no fewer than nine Major Champions prevailing: Moody (1971), Billy Casper (1973, 75), Lee Trevino (1977), Vijay Singh (1991), Payne Stewart (1992, 93), Nick Price (1995), David Toms (1999), Padraig Harrington (2007) and Ernie Els (2008).
- Since the tournament became part of the European Tour International Schedule in 2010, David Horsey has the best record of any player. Having won in 2011, he was tied second in 2013 and tied eighth in 2014. In 2010 he was tied 29th, tied 14th in 2012 and tied 17th in 2015. He is a total of 39 under par for 28 rounds in the event since 2010.

- On his way to victory in 2011, David Horsey made a hole-in-one on the second hole on day four. He became only the fourth player in European Tour history to make an ace in the final round and go on to win. He followed Thongchai Jaidee (2004 Carlsberg Malaysian Open), Miguel Angel Jiménez (2008 BMW PGA Championship) and Alvaro Quiros (2011 Omega Dubai Desert Classic).
- In 2016, Jeunghun Wang became the tenth South Korean winner in European Tour history, and the second youngest Asian player to triumph, after Noh Seung-yul won the 2010 Maybank Malaysian Open, aged 18 years and 282 days. He is still the most recent South Korean winner following his Commercial Bank Qatar Masters win in 2017.
- Wang was aged 20 years and 244 days, to become the youngest winner of the event.
- Following on from Li Haotong, who won the 2016 Volvo China Open seven days previous, Wang's victory marked the first time in European Tour history that two 20 year olds had won consecutive European Tour events.

Definitions

¹For the purpose of defining eligibility for selection for the 2018 European Ryder Cup team only, all references to Member(s) and Membership in the eligibility criteria referred to above shall mean only those European Members of the European Tour, whether Ranked Members, Affiliate Members, Honorary Life Members, Past Champions or other Members of distinction or Ranked European Members of the European Challenge Tour.

Note 1: Points won on The Ryder Cup Points List can only be earned by a Player whilst a Member¹ of the European Tour (as defined in the preceding section).

Note 2: For points earned to count within any one Official Season, a Ranked Member¹ (including a Ranked Honorary Life Member) must fulfil his Membership obligations* (referred to in Regulation B1(c)) within that Official Season.

* In the Official Season in which The Ryder Cup is to be played, if any Ranked Member¹ has not fulfilled these Membership obligations at the time when The European Ryder Cup team is selected, he must have committed to Participate in and there must remain sufficient Race to Dubai Tournaments in that Official Season for the Member to be able to do so.

Note 3: A Non-Member taking up Membership¹ of the European Tour for an Official Season that commences during the qualification period, (referred to in paragraph (1) above) can only earn points from the date of the first Race to Dubai Tournament of that Official Season or the first Race to Dubai Tournament for which the Player is a Member¹ of the European Tour, whichever is the latter.

Note 4: All decisions and/or disputes relating to a Player's eligibility for selection for a European Ryder Cup team including any issues relating to nationality, citizenship, domicile or residency of a Player will be determined by the European Tour's Tournament Committee, subject to the ratification of any such decision by the Ryder Cup Policy Board (as the same may subsequently be known) of Ryder Cup Europe LLP.
