HNA Open de France

Le Golf National, Paris,
France

2017 CHAMPION: Tommy Fleetwood (ENG)

PRIZE FUND: US$7,000,000

Tommy Fleetwood

DID YOU KNOW? - HNA Open de France

• The 102nd HNA Open de France is the only national open in Continental Europe to have been played more than 100 times. The tournament began in 1906. The only years the event was not played were 1915-19 and 1940-45.

• Tommy Fleetwood, the 2017 champion, will be aiming to become the sixth player to successfully defend his title since the event became part of the European Tour in 1972, following Peter Oosterhuis (1973-73), Seve Ballesteros (1985-86), Sir Nick Faldo (1988-89), Jean-François Remésy (2004-05) and Graeme McDowell (2013-14).

• Fleetwood, the reigning Race to Dubai champion, recorded his best Major Championship finish in the 2018 U.S. Open, taking second place behind Brooks Koepka thanks to a remarkable final round of 63 at Shinnecock Hills Golf Club, which equalled the record for the lowest round at a U.S. Open and the lowest score on the final day of a Major.

• The Open de France is second in the all-time list on the European Tour for players to have won the same European Tour event in consecutive seasons with five. The Irish Open is top of the list with six successful defences.

• History was created in the 1986 Open de France when Seve Ballesteros became the first player to successfully defend a European Tour title in a wire-to-wire fashion.

• Pablo Larrazábal, the 2008 champion, had to qualify to play in the event and became the first qualifier to win the Open de France and just the seventh qualifier in the history of the European Tour to win an event.

• The Open de France is used to high profile players winning the championship. No fewer than 20 Major Champions have had their name etched on the roll of honour since 1906.

• L'Albatros course at Le Golf National will be the host venue for the 102nd Open de France. First used in 1991 when Eduardo Romero won the title, it will be the 26th time it has hosted the event.

• Le Golf National, which will also host The 2018 Ryder Cup, has historically provided a stern test. The lowest winning total is 269, which was set by Pablo Larrazábal in 2008.

• In 2004 Jean-François Remésy became the first Frenchman to win his national open for 35 years – his compatriot Jean Garaialde won the title in 1969. Thomas Levet was the last Frenchman to win his national open in 2011.

• This year's Open de France is the third of eight events in the 2018 Rolex Series – a premium series of tournaments on the Race to Dubai that will offer a minimum prize fund of US$7million.

• World Number Two Justin Thomas and 2017 Masters Champion Sergio Garcia will both make their Open de France debut at Le Golf National.

• There are seven Major Champions in the field with Thomas, the reigning US PGA Championship winner, the most recent Major Champion and he'll be joined by Garcia, Martin Kaymer, Danny Willett, Trevor Immelman, Graeme McDowell and José María Olazábal.

The above table is the standings for The 2018 European Ryder Cup Team. The leading four players qualify through the European Points List. The next four players qualify through the World Points List. The final four players will be selected by the European captain.

European Team Qualification for The 2018 Ryder Cup

(a) The leading four Members¹ on The Ryder Cup European Points List (1) on Sunday 2nd September 2018 (or as at the conclusion of the Race to Dubai Tournament scheduled to conclude on that date, whichever is the latter and so long as such tournament concludes no later than Monday 3rd September 2018). In the event of a tie between Members (i.e. a number of Members having accumulated an equal number of points), placings will be decided by the Member¹ with the higher ranking on the 2018 Race to Dubai Rankings on Sunday 2nd September (or as at the conclusion of the Race to Dubai Tournament scheduled to conclude on that date, whichever is the latter and so long as such tournament concludes no later than Monday 3rd September 2018).

(b) The leading four Members¹, not otherwise qualified under (a) above, on The Ryder Cup World Points List (2) on Sunday 2nd September 2018 (or as at the conclusion of the Race to Dubai Tournament scheduled to conclude on that date, whichever is the latter and so long as such tournament concludes no later than Monday 3rd September 2018). In the event of a tie between Members (i.e. a number of Members having accumulated an equal number of points), placings will be decided by the Member¹ with the higher ranking on the Official World Golf Ranking as published on Monday 27th August 2018.

(c) The Captain, Thomas Bjørn, will choose (at his own discretion) the remaining four Members¹ in the week commencing Monday 10th September 2018.

1. The Ryder Cup European Points list will comprise points as follows:

(a) Each Euro of Official Money earned by a Member¹ from all Race to Dubai Tournaments in which he Participates that are scheduled to conclude between Thursday 31st August 2017 and Sunday 20th May 2018 = 1 point. (Money earned by a Member from the 2017 Race to Dubai Bonus Pool does not count towards this points list)

(b) Each Euro of Official Money earned by a Member¹ from all Race to Dubai Tournaments in which he Participates that are scheduled to conclude between Thursday 24th May 2018 and Sunday 2nd September 2018 = 1.5 points.

(2) The Ryder Cup World Points List will comprise points as follows:

(a) Each Official World Golf Ranking Point won by a Member¹ from all OWGR tournaments in which he Participates, excluding any tournament scheduled in the same week as a [European Tour] Rolex Series Tournament, that are scheduled to conclude between Thursday 31st August 2017 and Sunday 20th May 2018 = 1 point.

(b) Each Official World Golf Ranking Point won by a Member¹ from all OWGR tournaments in which he Participates, excluding any tournament scheduled in the same week as a [European Tour] Rolex Series Tournament, that are scheduled to conclude between Thursday 24th May 2018 and Sunday 26th August 2018 and thereafter only in the Race to Dubai Tournament scheduled to conclude on Sunday 2nd September 2018 = 1.5 points.

Definitions

¹For the purpose of defining eligibility for selection for the 2018 European Ryder Cup team only, all references to Member(s) and Membership in the eligibility criteria referred to above shall mean only those European Members of the European Tour, whether Ranked Members, Affiliate Members, Honorary Life Members, Past Champions or other Members of distinction or Ranked European Members of the European Challenge Tour.

Note 1: Points won on The Ryder Cup Points List can only be earned by a Player whilst a Member¹ of the European Tour (as defined in the preceding section).

Note 2: For points earned to count within any one Official Season, a Ranked Member¹ (including a Ranked Honorary Life Member) must fulfil his Membership obligations* (referred to in Regulation B1(c)) within that Official Season.

* In the Official Season in which The Ryder Cup is to be played, if any Ranked Member¹ has not fulfilled these Membership obligations at the time when The European Ryder Cup team is selected, he must have committed to Participate in and there must remain sufficient Race to Dubai Tournaments in that Official Season for the Member to be able to do so.

Note 3: A Non-Member taking up Membership¹ of the European Tour for an Official Season that commences during the qualification period, (referred to in paragraph (1) above) can only earn points from the date of the first Race to Dubai Tournament of that Official Season or the first Race to Dubai Tournament for which the Player is a Member¹ of the European Tour, whichever is the latter.

Note 4: All decisions and/or disputes relating to a Player's eligibility for selection for a European Ryder Cup team including any issues relating to nationality, citizenship, domicile or residency of a Player will be determined by the European Tour's Tournament Committee, subject to the ratification of any such decision by the Ryder Cup Policy Board (as the same may subsequently be known) of Ryder Cup Europe LLP.

The United States Ryder Cup Team Qualification for The 2018 Ryder Cup

The United States points system determines the top eight players for the 2018 United States Ryder Cup team from January 1, 2017 at the conclusion of the 2018 Northern Trust. In addition, Captain Jim Furyk will select four players to complete the United States team. Points are based upon the following:

- Prize money earned in the 2017 Major Championships (Masters Tournament, US Open, Open Championship and USPGA Championship): One point is awarded for every $1,000 earned; all US players making the cut will earn points.

- Prize money earned in 2017 Players Championship, WGC-Mexico Championship, WGC-Dell Match Play, WGC Bridgestone Invitational and WGC-HSBC Champions: One point is awarded for every $2,000 earned.

- Prize money earned in 2018 "official" events from the Tournament of Champions through to the 2018 Northern Trust: One point is awarded for every $1,000 earned, excluding the Major Championships, events played opposite Major Championships and events played opposite World Golf Championships.

- Prize money earned for the 2018 Major Championships: (Masters Tournament, US Open, Open Championship and USPGA Championship). Two points are awarded for every $1,000 earned; all US players making the cut will earn points.

OFFICIAL PARTNERS

Rolex, the leading brand of the Swiss watch industry, enjoys an unrivalled reputation for quality and expertise the world over. Its Oyster watches are all certified as Superlative Chronometers for their precision, performance and reliability. The brand is at the origin of numerous major watchmaking innovations, such as the Oyster, the first waterproof wristwatch, launched in 1926, and has registered over 400 patents in the course of its history. A truly integrated and independent manufacturing company, Rolex designs, develops and produces all the essential components of its watches in-house. Rolex is also actively involved in supporting the arts, sports, exploration, the spirit of enterprise, and the environment through a broad palette of sponsoring activities as well as philanthropic programmes. Rolex's partnership in excellence with golf began in 1967 when Arnold Palmer joined the brand's family of Testimonees. Since then Rolex has forged enduring relationships with many of the game's greatest players, events and organizations, including The R&A and The Open Championship, the PGA and the U.S. Open, the Ryder Cup in Europe, as well as the European Tour and the BMW PGA Championship.

With its three brands BMW, MINI and Rolls-Royce, the BMW Group is the world's leading premium manufacturer of automobiles and motorcycles and also provides premium financial and mobility services. As a global company, the BMW Group operates 31 production and assembly facilities in 14 countries and has a global sales network in more than 140 countries. In 2016, the BMW Group sold approximately 2.367 million cars and 145,000 motorcycles worldwide. As of 31 December 2015, the BMW Group had a workforce of 122,244 employees. The success of the BMW Group has always been based on long-term thinking and responsible action. The company has therefore established ecological and social sustainability throughout the value chain, comprehensive product responsibility and a clear commitment to conserving resources as an integral part of its strategy. Globally, BMW has been a significant partner of professional golf since 1989 and title sponsors three premier events on the European Tour, with the BMW PGA Championship being the inaugural tournament of the Rolex Series. BMW is also an Official Partner of the Ryder Cup.
